

University of CINCINNATI

A young man with glasses and a red and black backpack stands on a grassy hill, looking out over a city skyline under a blue sky with light clouds. The city buildings are visible in the distance, and a bridge spans a body of water in the mid-ground.

GREATNESS

lies beyond the classroom

uc.edu

Class of 2022, Urban Planning

Coming to the University of Cincinnati opened my eyes to so many different people and opportunities. In just three short years I have learned more about myself and my identity than ever before. The opportunities here are truly endless. From internships and co-ops, to student clubs and organizations, and even different things to do on the weekend, diversity at Cincinnati goes beyond the classroom and student body. I could not imagine being anywhere else than here!

Live inspired.

No rest for the 'wow factor.'

Since our campus master plan was first set in motion in 1989, we've never stopped innovating our living and learning spaces.

FOR EVERY HERO, there is an origin story.

Live well.

Residence halls provide a convenient home-away-from-home and an environment that encourages students academically, socially, and personally. Communities provide hundreds of programs and events every year, and hall staff are always there to lend a helping hand. Plus, students who live on campus do better academically and are more likely to graduate.

Important First-Year DATES & DEADLINES

DECEMBER 1, 2021

Early Action Deadline (non-binding)

All required materials must be submitted by this date in order for you to be considered for merit-based scholarships, the University Honors Program, and other honors opportunities. If you meet this Early Action Deadline, you will receive your admission decision on Cincinnati Decision Day.

Additionally, the following programs are often the first to close their application to new students on or shortly after December 1:

- College-Conservatory of Music*
- College of Design, Architecture, Art, and Planning
- College of Engineering and Applied Science
- College of Medicine
- College of Nursing
- Lindner College of Business

* Applicants to any major within CCM will be encouraged to submit pre-screening materials by November 15. For more CCM application information visit ccm.uc.edu/admissions.

Become a Transfer BEARCAT

University of Cincinnati undergraduate programs have varying admission requirements. At minimum, a cumulative college GPA of 2.00 is required to transfer to the Uptown Campus, though many programs are competitive and have higher requirements. Program profiles can be found at uc.edu/programs.

Some programs admit students for fall semester only and have priority deadlines.

We admit transfer students from both community and 4-year colleges and universities. Scholarships are available to qualifying transfer students from community colleges.

An associate degree is not required to transfer. However, an associate degree has several advantages, including special scholarship opportunities. Also, the Breadth of Knowledge portion of Cincinnati's General Education requirement is considered fulfilled for students with Associate of Arts, Associate of Science, or other associate degrees where articulation agreements are in place.

Advising Support

We offer preliminary advising so you can be sure your decision to transfer will be the right one. To learn more about how your credit may transfer to UC, visit the Office of Advising and Academic Services' website at uc.edu/aas/creditevaluation or schedule an appointment with a prospective transfer advisor by emailing transfer@uc.edu.

Need to meet with a transfer advisor?
Set up an appointment with the Transfer and Transition Advising Center.
» uc.edu/transferadvising

Transfer scholarships are available for students applying to any semester. All you need to do is have your application for admission and all required transcripts submitted by the deadline.

Learn more at admissions.uc.edu/tuition-aid/scholarships/transfer.
