Nursing Education Pathways

Path 1: Apply to direct-admission Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) program at UC Main Campus

Admitted

Join Interdisciplinary Nursing Prep (INP) program, at the College of Arts and Sciences. This program allows students to explore areas such as global or minority health, leadership and medical humanities, in addition to the nursing pre-requisites. At the end of your first year in the INP program, apply for Bachelor of Science in Nursing program, sophomore entry.

Admitted

Transition to the UC College of Nursing BSN program beginning with sophomore curriculum.

Graduate with BSN in 4 Years

Not admitted

Graduate with Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies (BIS)

Join UC College of Nursing Accelerated Direct-Entry Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) program*: earn an MSN and become a registered nurse (RN) in five semesters. Graduates are also prepared to continue their education and become an advanced-practice nurses.

Graduate with MSN

Path 2: Apply to Associates Degree in Nursing (ADN) at UC Blue Ash

Graduate with ADN in 2 Years

ADN graduates are ready to become registered nurses (RN).

Seamlessly transition to the UC College of Nursing Online RN to BSN. Take the 9 required nursing courses with flexible schedule options.

Graduate with BSN in 4 Years

*Pre-requisite courses for the Accelerated Direct-Entry MSN are included in the BIS - Nursing Prep program

Assuming full time schema

Students can complete their first year at UC Regional Campus and apply for Sophomore Entry.